

Rebuilding a vital link

Construction workers have nearly completed one side of the $47 million Rankin Bridge Rehabilitation Project linking Rankin and Whitaker, crossing the Monongahela River.

With two lanes of concrete already poured, some 22,500 motorists continue to use the span daily.

Workers are currently putting the finishing touches on the Brad-dock Avenue exit ramps.

The project is scheduled for completion in September 2010.